A PEW MORE POINTERS ABOUT THE
SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING
DEPARTMENT
OF THE
OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, 19TH AND DOUGLAS STS.
ROHREOUGH BROS. PROPRIETORS.
POINTER NO. 1-Mr. Chas. M. Miller, proprietar of the Miller S. H. School of N. Y.
City, ex-president of the Com. Trachers Federation, member of the N. Y. State Stenegraphers' Assen, member of the Teachers' S. H. Assen vice prosident of the N. Y. Com. Trachers' Assen, and at present secretary of the Eastern Teachers' Assen, a court reporter for twenty years in the Murson system and principal of the S. H. Dept. of Packards' Bus. College for 13 years, says:
"It is seldom any school can develop a student in shorthand so far that a speed of 150 words is trached. If by chance any school at the end of ten months of good solid instruction does succeed in reaching that rate of speed with a single pupil, it is heralded far and wide as a wonderful achievement. Most schools are content if their pupils write 169 words per minute, claiming that to be fast enough for ordinary correspondence. The chief reason why they are satisfied is because the system of shorthand taught therein are so difficult and complex that most students find it very hard to acquire 100 words per minute in from seven to ten months.
Such schools are forced therefore to be content with a low speed. Contrast this statement of fact with 155 words per minute at the end of four months study. This record was made recently by two pupils in the Miller school. Two other pupils reached the same speed at the end of four and one-half months. The Greng System is taught because of its simplicity. It enables students to use it practically after two or three weeks. After this time students in schools using a Pitmanic system after two or three months."
The above statement, coming from an old court reporter and teacher of thirty years'

dents in schools using a l'itmanic system after two or three months."

The above statement, coming from an old court reporter and teacher of thirty years' experience, ought to have some weight. The students now studying Gregg shorthand with us have made a corresponding record since Jan. 2. The prediction is justified that in four months our students will be writing les words per minute from new matter, if not more. A number already within two months are writing over 100 words per minute. What better evidence would any one require for simplicity, legibility and speed of Gregg shorthand?

POINTER No. 2—Our competitors are abus-ing Gree shorthand as a "cheap greused-lightning system." They condemn it be-cause they have not investigated it and cause they have not investigated it and because our students who are taking it are autstrippping their own. Instead of abusing it the proper thing to do would be to accept a challenge we recently made to all other schools for a public contest in legibility and speed. The challenge we made has never been accepted. We stand ready and willing at any time to enter into a public contest. It is always wiser to thoroughly investigate before you conoroughly investigate before you con thoroughly investigate before you condemn.

POINTER No. 3—We had another class in Gregg shorthand last Monday. Three new students have already arranged to begin next Monday morning. Students studying other systems are giving them up and coming to us to take the Gregg.

POINTER No. 4—If a system can be written at the rate of 170 words per minute backward and upside down on the blackboard by a man blindfolded and then be read like print, it ought to be a strong recommendation. Such was done by Mr. Rutherford of Cleveland at the Chicago convention. No system is so simple and as easily learned as the Gregg, which has but one position, one slant, no shading, less than 200 word signs, is extremely legible and can be written with the highest degree of speed.

POINTER No. 5—The business men of and can be written was gree of speed, gree of speed,

POINTER No. 5—The business men of Omaha in a few more months will give preference to stenographers who write Gregg shortband and use the Mosher System of Touch Typewriting, simply because ther can do more and better work in a given time. Cheap, incompetent stenographers will never be Gregg writers.
